

Weekly project report-2

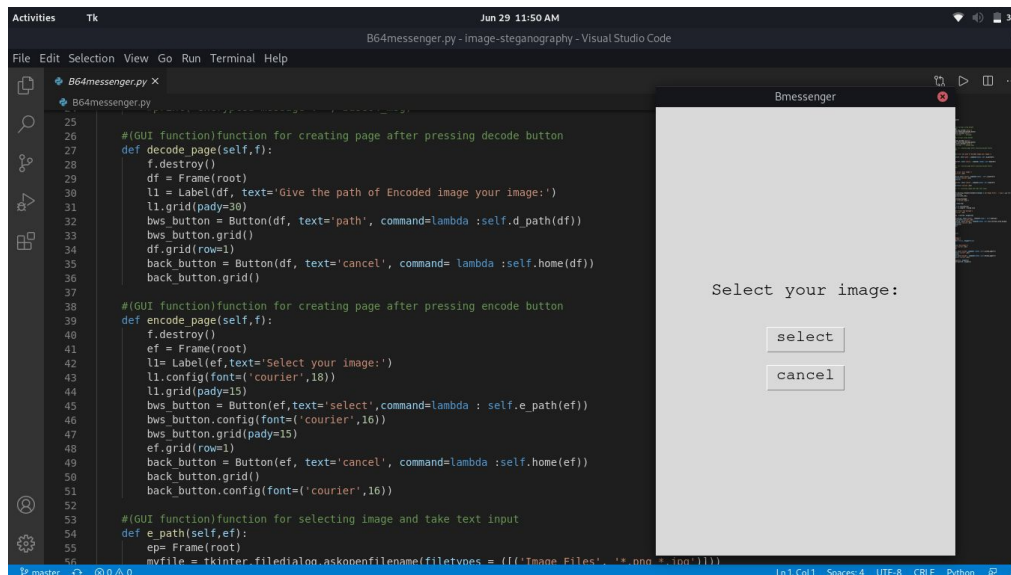

Project : Image Steganography

-completed studying tkinter and implemented encode GUI , and started further study for the pillow library. (PIL-python image library)

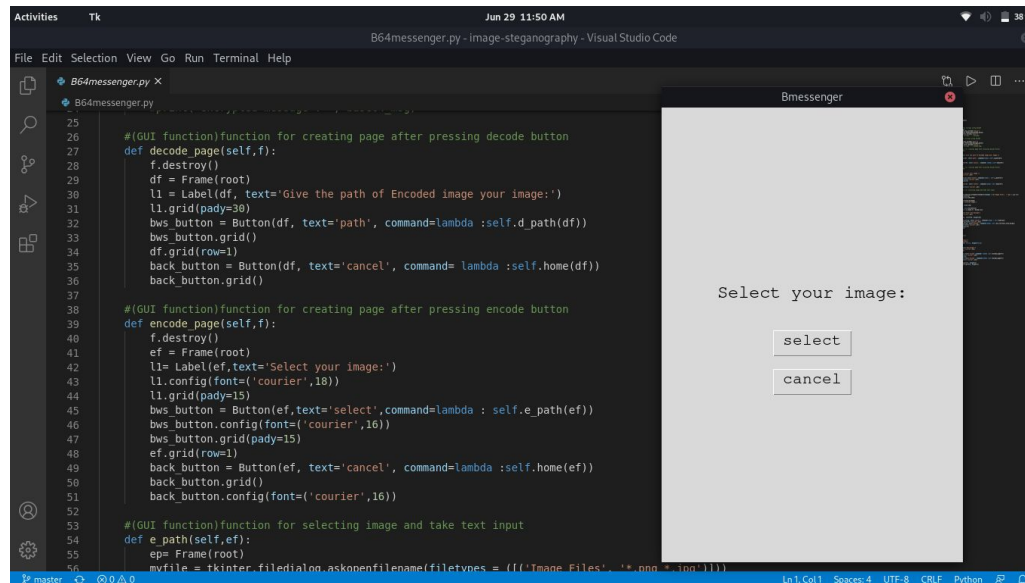

-this is front page of “Bmessenger” which gives option to encode and decode

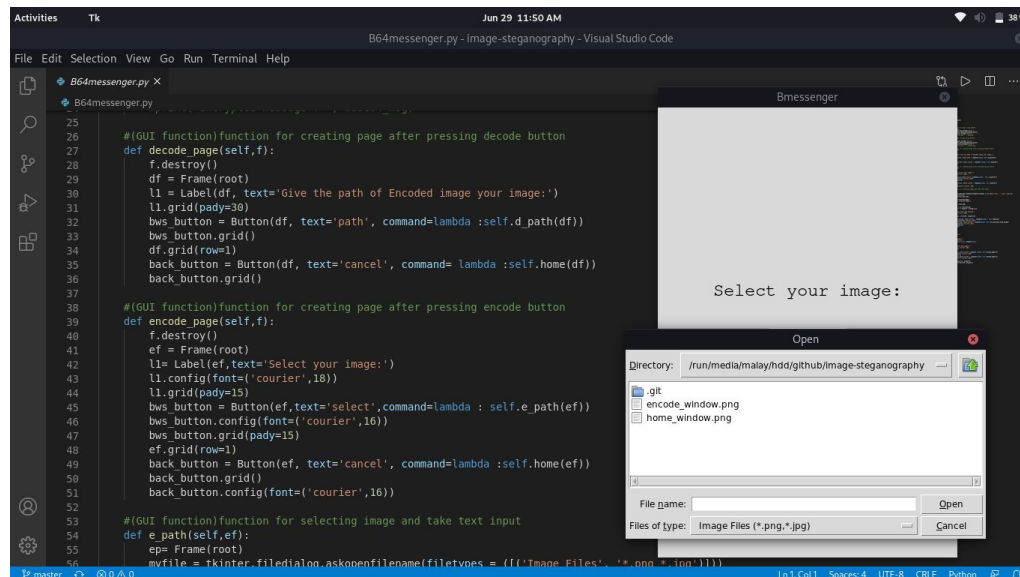

-This is GUI for encoding. which gives the option to select an image or go back to the home page.

-image selection using “askopenfilename()”, it provides the user to select an image or cancel the operation.

-User can only select the image file type as specified in code.

-the preview of the selected image and text box to enter in the image.

